THE EASTERN FEDERATION OF GREEK ORTHODOX CHURCH MUSICIANS NEWSLETTER • SUMMER 2015

2014 CONFERENCE

This year Kimisis Tis Theotokou Greek Orthodox Church of Holmdel, New Jersey opened its doors and welcomed the church musicians of the EFGOCM. The community was a wonderful host that provided the musicians with a place to gather, share fellowship, sing and create melodious sounds that filled the church during the Divine Liturgy.

The music for the Divine Liturgy was composed and directed by Constantine "Dean" Limberakis, Archon Primikirios. Dean has a long history as a musician who retired after 36 years as an administrator and teacher in Music Education in the public schools of Massachusetts and became an appointed Adjunct Instructor for Hellenic College and Holy Cross for the past 20 years.

Hope Demitry from St. George Greek Orthodox Church of Trenton, New Jersey was guest organist for the liturgy and accompanist for the workshop conducted by Mariana Alexander from Kimisis Tis Theotokou Church in Holmdel, New Jersey.

Thursday night was the beginning with the EFGOCM board meeting followed by the sight reading of the Doxology, this was just to get everyone started for the next two days of rehearsals leading up to the Divine Liturgy on Sunday. When we walked into the hall we found it decorated in a fall theme and the continental breakfast was enormous and beautifully displayed table full of the wonderful colors of autumn. We couldn't have had a better start to our day. The work began by rehearsing in the church. The choir took up the back left hand portion of the church which needed to have seats added to accommodate 88+ singers. Of course there were breaks and lunch and a small workshop where Marina presented some compositions that she composed. After the workshop we went back into our afternoon rehearsal which ended in time for the federation conference meeting. Our conference meeting has various components like selecting music and conductor for the following year. We remained at the church for dinner and the entertainment that followed. The fellowship is the best part of the weekend. Saturday night is our banquet and the theme was different with roses and votive lights which added a new look to the hall, leaving us to end the evening with dancing.

Sunday was the last day of the conference with the Divine Liturgy and a lunch after church. Just imagine having all of these wonderful voices filling the church with the sounds of music. We all wish we could take every singer back to our own church and have this glorious sound every Sunday, but there is always next year as we migrate down to the southern point of our metropolis where we will sing a brand new liturgy by Christopher Kypros, "Liturgy of Hope" in his home parish of Norfolk, VA. – Hope

News from NJ District #3

For members of the NJ District of EFGOCM, our defining annual event is The Spirit of Lent, a choral offering to God that enriches participants and audience alike with the liturgical music of the season. Always held on the last Friday of Lent, just before the Saturday of Lazarus, the concert presents many of the key hymns chanted during Lenten services. These moving works in both ancient and modern arrangements (always with translations in the program or, in some cases, sung in English) give both singers and listeners a deeper preparation for Holy Week and Pascha, as well as a taste of the “joyful sorrow” that is the true spirit of Lent.

This year the concert was held on April 3 at Holy Trinity Greek Orthodox Church, Westfield, NJ. Participants included 58 adult singers (including 6 choir directors) from 11 NJ churches, one NY church, and a NJ Pan-Orthodox choir, plus 10 youth singers from the Holy Trinity Westfield choir and 2 from St. George Trenton. Kathryn Athanasoulas, a past president of the EFGOCM, directed the group, with Hope Demitry serving as organ accompanist.

This wonderful tradition began in 1991, established by Dennis Spyros of blessed memory, and was first held at the Cathedral of St. John the Theologian in Tenafly, NJ. After the untimely passing of Dennis in 1997, Katina Kehayas and Kathryn Athanasoulas co-directed the event in 1998, after which Kathryn became the sole director. Hope Demitry has accompanied the choir on the organ since 1992. We also have the enjoyable tradition of a reception after the concert with light and delicious Lenten refreshments.

While the only way to really experience the great joy and fellowship of the event is to be there (and we are happy that EFGOCM Board Member Nick Kyros was able to join us for the evening), thanks to the Internet we can offer you several ways of “catching the spirit” of this concert.

Kathryn has created a photo album that you can view (be sure to click on “Full Screen” at the top left of the Shutterfly box) and optionally order at: <http://share.shutterfly.com/share/received/welcome.sfly?fid=9bce3e764e2156fb&sid=0AcN2zdi0csWrDtg>

A video recording of Agios O Theos (as arranged by Chris Kypros and specially featuring the youth choir) is available at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Kf-YncAdXks>

Miriam Kotsonis recorded and edited the concert. Hymns can be downloaded in mp3 format at: <https://www.dropbox.com/sh/10vsvlozfofobntc/AABRM2W2opF2eDuWb5W5Fii-a?dl=0>

Church Music Institute—March 21, 2015

On Saturday, March 21, 2015 St George Church of Trenton, NJ and choir hosted the Eastern Federation of Greek Orthodox Church Musicians (EFGOCM) New Jersey District 3's Church Music Institute (CMI). The beautiful snow that fell the night before did not deter 31 participants from the various churches in New Jersey, St. Luke's Church in Broomall, PA and two choir people of the OCA Church from attending this wonderful workshop. The morning began with a light Lenten continental breakfast followed by Father Jimmy calling all choir members "the angels" who work in conjunction and interact with the priest to enhance the liturgy. We are the heavenly sounds which combine the angels and saints from above as we celebrate the glory of the liturgy. At the conclusion of his welcome he gave us a blessing for the day.

The morning continued with Marina Alexander from Holmdel, NJ vocalizing the singers with warm-up techniques, vocal health and placement of the voice to create a better sound (that's why the next day the choir sounded so beautiful). Dr. Valerie Karras from St. Louis, MO presented on the "Theology Behind What We Sing" in the Liturgy. We broke for a delicious Lenten Lunch and fellowship.

The afternoon began with Valerie presenting her second presentation on "Orthodox Hymnology" that gave us a more technical view of the Byzantine Melodies and their Tones which vary according to the placement and purpose in a specific liturgy. The last two hours were devoted to singing many of the hymns presented in the early talks. Marina, an accomplished musician and conductor, enhanced the singing of these hymns by creating an understanding and depth of how to sing using the techniques from this morning with interpretation and meaning of these hymns. We sang hymns using various church composers both present and past in Greek and English.

I would like to thank Father Jimmy and St. George Church for providing the venue for this CMI. I also give a big "Thank You" to the St. George Choir who helped me with this event. The co-sponsors of this event were The National Forum of Greek Orthodox Church Musicians in conjunction with a grant from Leadership 100 and the Eastern Federation of Greek Orthodox Church Musicians.

-Hope Demitry

Church Music Institute—June 13, 2015

On Saturday, June 13, 2014, the Choir at St. Luke Greek Orthodox Church in Broomall, PA hosted a CMI featuring guest conductor and composer of The Liturgy of Hope, Christopher Kypros. The accompanists were Susanna Faust and Jim Bostaph.

Over 20 singers attended from New Jersey, Pennsylvania and Virginia. They learned how a composer is inspired to write a Liturgy, what composing entails, and how to follow the composer's interpretation and intention in the music.

The attendees especially enjoyed singing the Liturgy of Hope, which was selected for the Eastern Federation Conference in Norfolk, VA, in October and will be conducted by the composer. Chris mentioned many interesting thoughts, which he will also share at the Conference, one of which was that he considered his compositions musical icons and that he prayed and meditated prior to writing the next section.

St. Luke Church is in Phase 2 of its iconography master plan, and the iconographer, George Papastamatiou, is installing some of the work this month. He showed us the new icons being painted, especially the ones dedicated to Church Musicians, and answered questions. Interestingly, he mentioned that his preparation for writing an icon included prayer and the singing of the relevant hymn, which was similar to what Chris had mentioned in preparation for his compositions.
