

SELECTION OF MUSIC AND CONDUCTOR
For the 2018 & 2019 Annual Conferences
DEADLINE – May 1, 2017

(Excerpt from EFGOCM bylaws)

FEDERATION BYLAWS, ARTICLE VII: SPECIAL COMMITTEES

3. MUSIC REVIEW COMMITTEE

- a. The Music Review Committee shall consist of the current Board and shall include two Greek Orthodox musicians, who hold degrees in music.
- b. The Music Review Committee shall present to the Council at a meeting two years prior to the Annual Conference recommendations and alternates of a guest conductor and music to be performed. Only the music presented by the Music Review Committee shall be considered and voted upon by the Council.
- c. The Music Review Committee shall include in its recommendation the music performed at the previous annual conference.

The Music Review Committee will meet to determine which music and conductors will be presented to the Council for a vote at this year's conference for the 2018 (Richmond, VA) & 2019 (TBD) conferences. Gallos IV is automatically included for '18. Selection for 2018 was tabled at the 2016 Council Meeting pending the release of more Liturgy options with the newly approved English translations.

To make a suggestion to the committee, please complete the form below. For music (if relatively unknown), please provide a recording (or electronic link) and musical score with your submission as well as language and edition if applicable (i.e., Gallos, Greek, Opus 2). For guest conductor, include a biography or resume with your suggestion. There is no limit to how many forms you may submit and please remember to indicate below the year of the conference for which you are submitting. For a complete history of our conference music and conductors, log on to our webpage (<http://www.newjersey.churchmusic.goarch.org/>) and click on the Archives link.
